[Background]

AMS design is proud of its diverse personnel. Our team consists of many different personalities from a variety of different backgrounds. Primarily, we are formed through various relationships that have been carved out from many years of both work and education.

Some of our backgrounds come from the largest companies headquartered in Milwaukee while others come from firms ranked on the Fortune 500 list:

- | AIG
- | Guaranty Bank
- | Siegel-Gallagher
- | MillerCoors

[Education]

AMS design believes firmly in the power of education and that is reflected in our staff. From our many years at school, AMS design has aggregated countless hours of both artwork and marketing credits. Some of our educational accolades and associations include the:

- | National Technical Honor Society
- | Phi Theta Kappa Honors Fraternity
- | Phi Sigma Delta Social Fraternity
- | Collegiate Entrepreneurs Organization
- | Kauffman Entrepreneur Association

[Charities]

To give back both locally and nationally, AMS design has offered our services to many different charities at both a pro bono and discounted level. We are confident that our investment into the community will be returned tenfold in the future.

In other words, AMS design knows that through charitable giving, communities will thrive which will ultimately benefit the local firms. Just a few of our commitments include the:

- | Spina Bifida Association of Wisconsin
- | Super Gimp Foundation
- | Friends of Nutre Hogar
- | Boy Scouts of America

[Associations]

Similar to our work with local and national charities, AMS design is also committed to associations that are designed for success. We encourage our employees to join a variety of different business groups that will increase their industry knowledge while adding to their networks. Our employees are involved with the:

- | American Marketing Association
- | Adobe Users Group
- | Adobe InDesign Users Group
- | Milwaukee Graphic Design Group
